Mr. Allen Dulles
Central Intell. Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles

Some time ago I read a book by you concerning a Nazi Master-spy in Argentina. Just recently, my curiosity was re-kindled by a news report that Adolph Dickman had been seen in the Middle East.

I wonder if someone in your agency could send me whatever unclassified material you may possess on the subject of German - or Japanese - who are wanted by the Allied Powers but who either have disappeared or are beyond our reach. When I say out of reach - I not only mean Muller - reportedly in Russia - but those who are in Argentina, Switzerland, Tangier, Lebanon, etc.

I will appreciate any aid you may extend to me.

*Sincerely
Robert Hepp*
